The True Believers

True Believers, is a quartet group that debuted with Blackberry Records under the tutelage of the legendary Williams Brothers who share the same hometown of McComb, MS. Their debut release, Don't Count Me Out is a blend of contemporary and traditional stylings and won the favor of quartet fans throughout the nation.

Then signed to MALACO Records, this energetic group of gospel 'missionaries ' released In This Place on March 6, 2007, as part of the Yes! Quartet campaign MALACO launched in February of 2007.

True Believers have enjoyed much success during live concerts and fans are already picking favorites that can be found on the project. These favorites are: "Ooh, Wee; Another Blessing," "Don't Count Me Out," and "I Don't Need No Rock."

The title track, "In This Place," is a praise and worship tune that is also skillfully crafted and beautifully sung. There are fourteen cuts on the project altogether.

Don't Count Me Out includes a re-arrangement of Hezekiah Walker's hit song "Clean Inside," along with others such as "Don't Leave Me Jesus," (featuring Paul Porter), "Another Blessing," "Everything I Have" (featuring Melvin Williams), "I Don't Need No Rock," "Waitin'," "Don't Count Me Out" (title track), "Give Your Life to Jesus," "All About You," "I Get Joy," "Where Jesus Is," and "May the Lord Watch."

In 2018, the True Believers were named Group of the Year at the 40th Mississippi Gospel Music Awards. Their most recent single, "Waiting on Jesus" was released on 4 Winds in October 2018.

7 times winning at the Jackson Music Awards.

In 2020:

- Group of the Year for the GTA Golden Triangle Awards
- National Male Lead Singer of a Group at the 42th Mississippi Gospel Music Awards
- National Artist of the Year Awards at the Gulf Coast Gospel Music Awards (GCGMA) with 12,164 votes
- Nominated to the 2020 Stellar Award.

In February 2019, The True Believers, led and produced by Castro Coleman are back with their new release "Back to the Roots" under the MALACO Records. They will be touring all over the country so don't miss them!!!
